

Macdonough, David

March 1915

224
March 27th, 1915

Rev. David MacLaughlin, Arragh,
Ireland.

Dear Sir:

I have received your application for a position on the staff of University College, Toronto, made vacant by the death of Professor G. S. Stevenson. I have referred your application to the Head of the Department, but he reports to me that he cannot recommend you for the position.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

223

Drumminis Mause, Armagh,
Ireland.
March 9, 1915.

Dear Sir,

I beg respectfully to offer myself as a Candidate for the Chair of English Literature now vacant in Toronto University, owing to the death of the late Professor Stevenson.

I enclose copies of testimonials and record of my University and
post-graduate studies,
also of my experience in teaching and literary

mark in favour of my Candidacy. I am at liberty to refer you to the following Gentlemen, who are acquainted with my work and attainments.

Rt. Hon. Sir James B. Dougherty.
Bart. P.C., M.P., late Under-Secretary for Ireland, and formerly Professor of English & Logic in Magee College, Londonderry, Ireland.

Present address is
House of Commons,
Westminster

London S. W.

Sir John B. Lonsdale, Bart. M.P.
House of Commons,
Westminster
London. S. W.

^{W. 9}
Rev. ~~J. F.~~ Macaulay, B. A., D. D.
(ex-moderator Irish Presbyterian Church)

Portadown.

Co. Armagh.

Ireland.

I may also state - that I am a minister of the Irish Presbyterian Church, and ministering to one of her Congregations.

If appointed it would be my best endeavour to discharge the duties of the Chair
to your satisfaction.

I am,
Faithfully yours,

David Mac Laughlin.

The President -
Toronto University -
Ont. Canada.